Initial Complaint Narrative

Mr. Danton Duncan states he was arrested on a claimed investigation which was actually just an apprehension as an immediate collar for an unsuccessful buy and bust operation. This is made apparent from the events that transpired at the 30th precinct, where he was processed and from the information given to him as to there being three officers witnessing him make a criminal sale during grand jury proceedings, in which this information should have been mentioned and noted in the original docket and at arraignment. Mr. Duncan states what occurred at the 30th precinct was as if he was a fish that had been caught. Numerous photos were taken of him and also numerous officers of the 30th precinct took notes as to his possession. Mr. Duncan states he even heard the officer said "I want to give his photo to the other guys on the team". Mr. Duncan states he do not appreciate being a collar to correct a unsuccessful buy and bust in which there are 4 - 5 unidentified perpetrators and this unit corruption is evident in how documents prepared falsely indicates that he was processed at the 32nd precinct instead of the "dirty 30". Mr. Duncan states he will express to the court the corrupt practices of his matter of fraud and perjury will be investigated. Mr. Duncan states he got arrested over an hour of his said crime and has witnesses that he got bagged by thirty officers looking for a collar(s) at the end of their tour for just being outside.
